Crouch. right to take into consideration any interest which such witnesses may feel in the result of the suit, if any is proved or appears, growing out of their relationship or interest in the defendant or otherwise, and give to the testimony of such witnesses only such weight as you think it entitled to under all the circumstances proved on the trial. The witnesses for the defendant city were mostly, if not all, residents and taxpayers therein, and had to that extent a pecuniary interest in the result of the trial, from which it is argued that the effect of the instructions quoted was to discredit their testimony. Practically the same question was presented for consideration in Barmby v. Wolfe, 44 Neb. , 77, and decided adversely to the contention of the plaintiff in error. It is there said, referring to Housh v. State, 43 Neb. , 163, and Carleton v. State, 43 Neb. , 373: In the two latest cases doubts were expressed as to the policy of such instructions, but the question was no longer deemed an open one. The rule thus stated follows logically from the doctrine of the earlier opinions of this court and is decisive of the question here presented. The remaining assignments of error present in different forms the questions already examined, and do not require further notice at this time. We discover no error in the record and the judgment will be Affirmed. Home...
