This was the exclamation of my California friend on first seeing these models for the Connecting Link. In her simple, yet deeply expressive words, spoke the mother heart of our great Nation. In them was embodied the truth that Childhood s happiness is Manhood s blessing. We owe our children not simply a schooling, but a happy, rounded development of their best capacities. Compulsory education will no longer be necessary when the school can be made a joy to the child. It is not the toilsome, overburdened, dissatisfied school-child that makes the best citizen. It is the light-hearted, creative boy or girl who has learned in childhood to love work for its own sake that becomes the best man or woman in after life. The following paper is not offered as a completed theory to this point, but as a mere collection of statements, in part theoretical, and in part practical. The practical part illustrates, descriptively and by drawings, what has already been proved successful in filling the gap between the Kindergarten and the Manual Labor School. It may be aptly termed the Connecting Link, and is meant to be applied as the stepping-stone to a systematized development, presenting a logical sequence to the principles, method, and occupations prescribed by Fr bel in the kindergarten. Personal investigation and study of the existing labor schools in Europe for young...
