Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Can there be hope for love beyond the grave? Elizabeth is stunned. Daniel, the handsome detective shes met while researching a mysterious series of murders in London, was killed right in front of her. But she soon learns that Daniels ghost is stranded in this world and that shes the only person who can see and hear him. They team up to find his murderers and come to realise that things aren t what they first seemed to be. There s only one question that bothers Elizabeth even more: Has fate really given Daniel and her a second chance? Or is this just a brief respite from the inevitable? ***** Excerpt ***** She wondered whether Daniel had believed in life after death. What was it like for him now? His old life, his family, his friends - in one fell swoop, everything was out of reach. And all he could do was stand by and watch. While the only person he could communicate with was a woman he had only just met, nobody he really knew, nobody from his life. A wave of sadness washed over Elizabeth as she realised how lost Daniel must be feeling. He was stranded in this world like Robinson Crusoe on his island. And she was his only contact. If only she had met him earlier, and had had a chance to become a part of his life . Pretty spot you ve picked here. Daniel s voice came from her right side, and seemed very close. She couldn t see him, though, since the sun was still shining, even though it was starting to set. Hey, Danny. Elizabeth smiled in relief. It...
