A judgment, based upon a verdict in favor of Keef, was rendered in the circuit court, and an affirmance was the result of the appeal to the court of civil appeals. Sanford has petitioned this court for a review and reversal; and the cause was set down for oral argument at the bar of this court on points designated by us. Sanford owned a plantation in the State of Arkansas, and contracted with the Gullett Gin Company for the purchase of a cotton gin. The terms of this contract shed much light upon the litigation. Under the contract the title to the gin passed to Sanford on delivery thereof f. o. b. cars of the common carrier for shipment to him. By one of the clauses it was provided: Services of Erector. --It is hereby expressly understood that if the Gullett Gin Company furnishes...
