Anders, Appellant v. . Philadelphia. Municipalities--Municipal contract--Conspiracy--Competitive bidding--Accounting--Equity. 1. On a bill in equity by taxpayer against a city, certain of its officers, and a municipal contractor, to declare a contract void because it was the product of an unlawful combination entered into with the view to prevent competitive bidding, and for an accounting from the contractor, the prayers of the bill cannot be granted where the court finds as a fact based on sufficient evidence, that there was no improper understanding among the bidders, and that the close approximation in the bids showed that there was competitive bidding in fact; and such prayers will be refused although the court finds as a fact that the contractor failed to comply strictly, or fully with the requirements of the contract, that this failure was known to the officers of the...
