We Don t Have a Choice Whether or Not We DO Social Media, the Question is HowWell We Do It. - Erik Qualman There s no question about it, the world has changed. With all social media users spending an average of over 3 hours a day staring at their glowing rectangles, traditional marketing methods have been thrown out the window. If you are not leveraging social media for marketing purposes then you are falling behind. You cannot opt out of playing this game. You are either optimizing your social media presence or quickly becoming irrelevant to your customers. If you are not contributing to your customers through this new medium, you are not only missing out on greater profits, you are missing out on the ability to build profound connections with your customers. Social Media marketing is unique because it is a powerful form of Permission Marketing. Your customers are making the personal choice to allow you to market to them by following you. This is fundamentally different from the traditional form of marketing, known as Interruption Marketing. Instead of grasping and begging for your customers attention (namely, those that don t care for your service) you create the means for your actual customers to engage with you in a very human and real way.
