THE GUARDIAN OF THRESHOLD It is said that love survives everything, if that's true, then so does death and even hate. Mark was ten years old when his mother died in a horrible car accident. He blamed himself for years on end regretting the fact that he would never get a chance to tell her that he was sorry. His only dream is to see her again, whatever the cost may be. Unfortunately, one day he gets his chance, but like everything else in life, it comes at a hefty price. Although, it is normal for sixteen-year-old boys to be chasing the next girl down the school hall, Mark has much bigger problems. For starters, his father could give two hoots about him, his house is in shambles and is the town joke and his only friends are the twins across the street. As impossible as it sounds death won't be able to keep him from seeing his mother again, the only question is how far will he go to make it happen. BOOK SIZE: 6x9 inches A fantastic and unforgettable journey into the astral realm. THE GUARDIAN OF THRESHOLD is a thrilling paranormal fantasy that will appeal to young adult and new adult readers of fantasy novels. FROM THE BACK COVER: Threshold is a world of unsurpassed beauty, a place where the laws of physics break down.
