Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Selections Nothing which throws light upon a rare and beautiful spirit can he thought trivial or too personal; and so it has seemed well to print passages from; the writings of Katharine Coolidge which show the simple and domestic side of her life as well as those if which reveal its grave and beautiful depths. These selections will perhaps help her friends better to understand her spiritual nature in its struggles for Light and Truth, and to realize the eagerness with which she met all human relations, seeking, with instant sympathy and with the comprehension of her serene spirit, their divine meaning. They show that, although she reached out to regions far beyond us, yet she remained in close touch with the things of earthy and they had for her a deep reality: Nature which she worshipped in her gar den in the woods, in the fields and the mountains - was real. Life was real as Heaven was real and near to her; and as she grew in larger vision and experience evil too, and illness and suffering took their places as realities which were not to be denied in the great scheme of human destiny. But whatever experience she touched, was uplifted by a faith in the rightness of all things which nothing could disturb. Evil existed indeed, but her nature turned instinctively to the goody which she seemed to have the divine gift of drawing out from every one who came within reach of her calm influence. This book has been printed for her friends - for those to whom she wrote, as well as for those to whom her nature revealed...
