Excerpt: .ten long, weary years, Shameen, I recollect it well, The last time that we druv this road, The fair-day of Clonmel; The lark sang wild an clear on high In hopes your tune to drown, An there wasn t a cloud in the blue, blue sky, But the wan above the town. Mavrone! there wasn t a sign that day, Or else our eyes wor blind, Of the bitter storm-cloud, wild an grey, Comin fast on the wind. Avic, it broke on your little home, The landlord s will was done, An ere the harvest time was come You sailed to the settin sun. I think your big heart broke, agra! The hour you said good-bye; I druv you for the last sad time, The tears stood in my eye. I stopped the mare while you looked wanst more On hill, an vale, an...
